

Dear parents,

As you well know, College De La Salle in Amman is a part of educational network in 80 different countries including La Sallian schools and universities in Asia, Europe, North America, South America and Oceania. It is considered as the biggest school in the world as it has more than 148 branches all over the globe.

At present, the College De La Salle in Amman has 1500 pupils with a staff of about 150 highly qualified, well-experienced teachers. The school opens its doors to boys and girls willing to study for the Jordanian certificate of Secondary Education (Tawjihi), IGCSE O-level and GCE A-level, SAT and IB Diploma (in process of accreditation). Therefore, we are keen to ensure that our college is meeting your need and exceeding your expectations. We welcome your feedback about our college and request specific information on areas where we could do better.

Please take a few minutes to share your thoughts and feelings about your child's school-age program (for each child studying in this college). Your comments will help us make improvements to the existing programs and make plans for new program initiatives if needed.

The survey is confidential and does not require your signature. Please return the form in the closed white envelope.
